Prof. Dr. Mubashar Nadeem
Department of English
University of Education Lahore
(HEC Approved Supervisor)

PROFILE:

I have a doctorate in English with specialization in applied linguistics from the University of Education Lahore (Pakistan) in 2009, as well as a certificate in "Assessment and Evaluation" from Plymouth State University (New Hampshire, USA) 2007, a certificate in pre- and in-service teacher training from University Technology Malaysia (Malaysia), and University of the East (The Philippines) 2008. I have held a number of positions at the University of Education Lahore from 2002 to 2024. These include the Chairperson, Department of English (January 2021 to August 2023), Director Student Affairs (August 2019 to November 2019), Director, Division of Arts & Social Sciences (October 2011 to August 2013), Director, Directorate of Research (August 2013 to July 2015), and Registrar (September 2022 to November 2022). From August 2006 to July 2015, I was in charge of all HEC-sponsored and supported training programs initiated under the auspices of NAHE, PCEPT, TESP, IOT, and other organizations. In addition, I helped establish teacher training programs for faculty and non-teaching staff at other public and private universities. During my tenure as Director Research UE (2013–2015), I collaborated with HED to design and implement the first ever in-service training program for college teachers teaching BS programs at 26 Government Colleges in Punjab. In addition, from August 1, 2015 to July 31, 2018, I served as Director Training at the Punjab Higher Education Commission. I oversaw the first-ever PHEC Staff Development Academy under the leadership of Chairman PHEC, designed and implemented three mega training programs, as well as short-term training programs for the faculty and administration of public colleges and universities. In 2021, I worked with HED to design and prepare training modules on "Personality Development" and "Training of College Teachers & Management."

I have served UE Academic Council, BASR, Board of Studies (English), Divisional Board of Studies in Arts & Social Sciences, University Quality Enhancement Committee, University Business Plan Development Committee, and various other committees. I have also coordinated workshops, developed courses (BS, MA, MPhil, and PhD English), trained teachers, and worked enthusiastically with educators at all levels. Most recently, I have developed training modules for all public sector university teachers and statutory positions as well as for the administration and faculty of affiliated colleges.

Since 2002, I have also taught undergraduate (MA and BS English) and graduate (MPhil & PhD English) programs. I have published approximately 68 peer-reviewed national and international research articles and presented papers on a variety of education-related topics at national and international conferences. In July 2011, the Higher Education Commission of Pakistan presented me with "The Best University Teacher Award 2010" in recognition of my efforts. This was the first time a UE teacher had ever been recognized with this distinction.
